REPORTS

The 19th

Thank you, Nan, for providing your home and food for our Celebrate the 19th. We (Estelle, Rhonda, Gail, Elaine, Leslie, Juliana and Char) enjoyed each other's company, ate well, and laughed heartily.

The butternut squash soup was delicious, with a tasty green salad and homemade lasagna. We discussed our upcoming very busy calendar with important events in which to participate.

JOIN US

On March 3, Thursday, we have the UN Association of Davis speaker event which we are co-sponsoring. Rev. Kristin Stoneking will discuss her experiences and the organization she directs, Fellowship Reconciliation, at I House, 10 College Park, from 7:00 pm- 9. See last month's flyer or go to our website www.aauwdavis.org. Refreshments will be available.

On March 10, Thursday, we have another important event. We are co-sponsoring a panel discussion on Human Trafficking (see flyer below). This event takes place in Sacramento from 7:00 pm-9. We will also be selling raffle tickets for the quilt generously donated by Marti Abbott at this event. Please contact Juliana if you plan to attend, so that we may carpool and that Sacramento AAUW will have an idea of how many might be attending. 530-758-3011 or carwells@thegrid.net.

March 10th

The annual Women's History Month Luncheon will take place on Thursday, March 10 from 11:00am to 1:00pm at the Woodland Community and Senior Center at 2001 East St. in Woodland.

The guest speaker is Cantil-Sakauye, 28th Chief Justice of the State of CA. She is the first Asian-Filipina American and the second woman to serve as the state's Chief Justice. She also chairs the Judicial Council of CA, which is the administrative policy-making body of state courts. She is a Sacramento native and graduate of UCD.

This luncheon is sold out. We will report on it.

March 10th evening

The Sacramento AAUW branch is planning a program about human trafficking. Did you know that Sacramento is a major hub for selling women and children? We are co-sponsoring this discussion, which will take place at 7:00 pm on the 10th at St. Mark's United Methodist Church at 2391 St. Mark's Way, Sacramento.

The format consists of presentations by individuals (see list below) followed by panel discussion and questions from the audience.

Speakers:

Jenny Williamson, Exec. Dir. Of Courage, Worldwide

Jan Scully, Founder and Director of Family Justice Center

Holly Gibbs, survivor and health educator at Dignity
Healthcare

Sonia Satchell, Deputy District Attorney, Sac DA Office, and member of Human Trafficking Task Force

If you are interested in carpooling, please contact Estelle.

What about the new board for June 2016?

Our officers will remain the same except for Secretary. Verena Borton and Laleh Rastegarzadeh are considering joining the board. We will have our business meeting April 11 at Village Pizza and Grill to vote in the slate and enjoy pizza and salad.

VOLUNTEER HELP

If you want to give input or volunteer to help with the quilt fundraiser, please notify a board member or Juliana.

Also, please give Juliana any report or information you want published in the newsletter.
